'Short' Yarbrough Qualifies for Semi-Finals in Chicago

Squeezing in by a narrow margin the width of a hair on a bowling bowl, Marion "Short" Yarbrough, owner of the Torrance Bowl, has qualified number 46 out of 46 allowed qualifiers for the semi-finals in the National All-Star Bowling Tournament now under way in Chicago, according to a wire received yesterday by his wife "Toots" Yarbrough.

El Warriors Take Water Polo Crown

Coach U. E. Sarril's El Camino Warrior Water Polo seven marked up a 13-8 decision over the visiting Loyola University recently in the El Segundo High School plunge to capture the Southern California Small College championship.

The win was the second straight for the local aggregation. The Blue and Grey swimmers had previously tripped Loyola 9-6 in the first game of the two-out-of-three series.

Grant Jay Cee Next Home Game for El Camino

El Camino basketball team will make their next local appearance on Dec. 29 against Sacramento's Grand Jay Cee, it was announced last week by H. J. Sneffield, director of the student personnel.

Late Shot Saves Day for Compton Over El Camino

Faced by Al Lamont's 21 points, Compton College withstood a late El Camino rally and went on to edge the Warriors 55-52 in a non-conference practice tilt Saturday evening in the Redondo High School gymnasium.

Bill Stanley, former Student Body president and Commissioner of Athletics at Torrance High School, has landed a berth at guard on the University of Redlands basketball team, according to the university.

Johns Club Whip National Home 31-7 in Touch

Uncorking a ground and air offense that "couldn't miss," the Johns Club shelled National Home Appliance 31-7 in a game of the Torrance Touch football league Sunday at Narbonne High School.

Touch Football League for Kids Plans Carnival

Torrance football fans can get their first view of the 1953, 1954 and 1955 football teams at 7 p.m. Tuesday night when 12 kid teams of the YMCA-City Recreation Touch Football League see action in a big football carnival under the lights at Torrance Park.

Faculty Silent On Subject of Knight Battle

As part of their campaign to raise funds to buy jackets to be worn on official occasions, the Tartar Knights will play the high school faculty (men) in a game of basketball prior to the Ventura-Torrance game on Friday night.

Police Stymie Plumbers, 5-3

Taking advantage of four walks and a hit batsman, the Torrance Police nine pushed across three runs in the fifth inning and added another in the eighth to defeat the Vermont Plumbers, 5-3 in the City Park a week ago.

Suttle, Nelson Join U. S. Army

Two recent graduates of Torrance High School, both outstanding athletes during their school years, were among the men volunteering for military service at the local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station at 1337 El Prado avenue last week, according to station commander M/Sgt. James R. Carlson.

Police Stymie Plumbers, 5-3

Tom Ackers, pitching from the portside, fanned 11, walked two and gave six hits to the Plumbers. For hits, the Police relied on Swain Johnson, Hal Jackson, "Bucky" Kuhn and Bob Chambers for a hit apiece.

Heads Bowl Card

Tino Fierro of Wilmington, one of the most colorful welterweights in Southern California amateur boxing, returns to action in one of the headline matches of the Bakersfield vs. Harbor A. C. bouts in an inter-state feud at the Wilmington Bowl Friday night. Fierro faces Roy Griffiths of Bakersfield in the special event.

MOON SHINES

Dan Moon, son of city sports director, Elmer Moon, has contributed nine points to Compton College's total of 371 points run up against their gridiron opponents this year. Moon was one of 13 players to cross the goal line for the Tartars of Compton.
